For Immediate Release:

JOHNSON RECEIVES PROJECT MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION FROM THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

NEWTOWN SQUARE, PA USA – The Project Management Institute (PMI®) is proud to announce that Mr. Bruce W. Johnson, MS, PMP has earned the designation of Project Management Professional (PMP®) on April 02, 2002. The PMP certification is the project management profession's most recognized and respected global credential. To achieve certification each candidate must satisfy stringent educational, experiential and professional requirements established by the PMI and demonstrate an acceptable understanding and knowledge of project management. The candidate must hold a baccalaureate degree and have a minimum of 4,500 hours of project management experience within the last 6 years. In order to maintain professional status each member must accrue a minimum of 20 hours of professional development units every year.

Mr. Johnson has over 6,000 hours of project management experience in the areas of information systems procurement, implementation and development as well as with organizational enhancement and construction projects. He has worked with over 245 clients on more than 450 projects throughout the United States.

Project Management Institute:

Established in 1969 and headquartered outside of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA, PMI is the world's leading not-for-profit project management professional association with almost 65,000 members worldwide. The PMP certification program is recognized worldwide as the standard for measuring an individual's core knowledge, understanding and application of project management practices. In 1999, PMI's certification department became the first certification program department in the world to attain ISO 9001 recognition.
