

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:

JOHNSON ELECTED TREASURER OF THE CINCINNATI SECTION OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR QUALITY

CINCINNATI, OH USA – Johnson Consulting Services, LLC (JCS) is proud to announce that Mr. Bruce W. Johnson, President of JCS, has been elected the Treasurer of the Cincinnati Chapter of the American Society for Quality on July 1, 2006.

The American Society for Quality (ASQ) is the world's leading authority on quality. With more than 100,000 individual and organizational members, this professional association advances learning, quality improvement, and knowledge exchange to improve business results, and to create better workplaces and communities worldwide. As champion of the quality movement, ASQ offers technologies, concepts, tools, and training to quality professionals, quality practitioners, and everyday consumers, encouraging all to Make Good Great®. <http://www.asq.org>

ASQ members have informed and advised the U.S. Congress, government agencies, state legislatures and other groups and individuals on quality-related topics. And since 1991 ASQ has administered the United States' premier quality honor—the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award, which annually recognizes companies and organizations that have achieved performance excellence.

The Cincinnati Chapter has over 600 members, including 8 fellows and 274 senior members. The members include small business owners, executives, directors, managers, consultants, engineers, and technicians. The special interest groups active in the Cincinnati Chapter include health care, service industries, government, education and manufacturing. <http://www.asqcincinnati.org/default.html>
